WAYWARD GIRLS TO BE RETURNED TODAY

Unless something unforeseen happens, Brucella Kimmis will be sent to the reform school.

Long ago her relatives gave up all hope of the girl's reformation but she was given one more chance by Dr. and Mrs. Harry Carson.

It is hardly likely after their experience that any one will intervene in her behalf. While no official statement was given yesterday it seemed to be common gossip that Brucella would be sent to the state institution of which she has such a horror. It was to keep her from being committed there that the Carsons took her into their home.

Mildred Clare, the girl who accompanied Brucella Kimmis to the coast, may share her fate, but it is generally believed that she will be allowed to remain as a ward of the court. This is merely surmise as nothing will be decided until after the hearing which will probably be today on their arrival from the coast. As yet Mrs. Carson has had no word of her jewels which Brucella is alleged to have stolen. It is believed that these jewels led to the arrest of the girls in Pasadena, for it was while on the way to a pawnshop they were taken into custody.

CAMPBELL'S PLIGHT NOT TO BE ENVIED HE IS A BUSY MAN

Republican Candidate for Governor Needs a Secretary but Would Rather Do It Himself

"This business of being a candidate for governor, and being a tax commissioner at the same time, is certainly a husky job," said Tom Campbell yesterday afternoon.

At the time the republican candidate made the above statement, he was tucked away in his little cubby hole of an office on the west side of the capitol. The sun was doing its best to melt the panes of the window, and it was sizzling to say the least. In spite of all this, Mr. Campbell was ready and willing to snatch a few minutes from his duties and tell how it felt to be at the head of the procession, which has for its object the gubernatorial chair.

"Just look at this mail," he said. "Every day I get a great many letters from all parts of the state, offering me aid, asking me questions and passing out advice. I answer all of them myself. I don't bother to turn them over to a secretary, simply because I have no secretary. I am not an expert typist, and I painfully and painstakingly pound them out on that typewriter over there in the corner."

"Here is one man," and he leaned over and picked up a letter, "who is writing and asking me my stand on a certain matter. Now that matter does not pertain to state-wide matters, but is most important to him. I shall answer him as soon as possible and detail my views on the matter. Here is another man who is writing me and telling me that although his county is democratic, he is positive from conversations held around the county that I will carry it. That the voters are for the man and not the party. I have any number of letters like this and they all hold out encouragement and express their best wishes of good luck for me."

NO PLACE FOR A MINISTER'S SON'S SUIT CASE, THIS

Using the church as a refuge, James McDonald, a 17-year-old lad, has been in the habit of stealing into the Methodist church of Tempe and resting a few hours. The other day when he was stealthily leaving the building he saw a suit case and took it with him.

The church has not been used for services for some time, Rev. William Fisk having utilized it as his study. The suit case taken by the boy belonged to his son, Floyd Fisk.

McDonald was brought before Judge Stanford of the juvenile court yesterday by Officer M. C. Browning of Tempe. Judge Stanford after a long talk with the young offender decided to give him his chance. He has assured the court that he will make good and has volunteered his first wages for payment of the suit case.

WANTS WIFE MADE A JUVENILE WARD

Frank Shindlbower yesterday took the step toward having his wife of three months made a ward of the juvenile court.

Charging his bride, who is sixteen years of age with being incorrigible because she refuses to live with him, Shindlbower has filed a juvenile petition in the office of the clerk of the superior court. He also alleges the girl is neglected since she is staying with her parents who do not properly care for her.

Shindlbower and Grace Owens were married April 19 by Judge Stanford.

COMB SAGE TEA IN LIFELESS, GRAY HAIR

Look Young! Common Garden Sage and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally No One Can Tell

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair; and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known down town druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking a strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

MARICOPA HOLDING CELLAR POSITION

More County Tax Reports Show That This County Still Is Valiantly Defending Its Position

According to figures fast pouring into the office of the state board of equalization, Maricopa county still holds the unenviable position of being the only county in the state, which has failed to show an increase in the value of its taxable property.

Navajo county sent in its abstract yesterday, it showing a 1915 valuation of $8,127,123.00, a 1916 valuation of $8,555,173.00, an increase of $428,050.00. Pima county claims a 1915 valuation of $26,097,756.12, and a 1916 valuation of $27,498,968.55, an increase of $1,401,212.43. Coconino county, although it has a small increase, but still remains on the right side of the ledger. The 1915 valuation is $17,306,166.97, a 1916 valuation of $17,376,167.05, an increase of $69,999.08.

Only three more counties remain to report to the board. Telegrams were sent out yesterday, asking the county tax assessors to please hurry up and get them in. It is expected that they will all be in within the next few days.

AMUSEMENTS

At The Plaza

Pearl White and her capable company of actors will be in their glory at the Plaza theater all day today in the most recent installment of the great Pathé serial, "The Iron Claw." This installment is called "The Arrows of Hate," the story briefly is this: The Iron Claw perpetrates a number of outrages in the name "The Laughing Mask" and in consequence the police seek the mask and they trap him in the home of Enoch Golden. Margery saves the mask, but is herself trapped by Legar (Iron Claw). Manley, her father's secretary, attempts to rescue her and fights Legar but is overpowered. He and Margery are bound hand and foot and thrown into a room and the gas turned on. Through Manley's ingenuity they are about to get out when an accomplice of Legar appears and shoots at them a number of arrows, small ones, believed to have been poisoned. But the laughing mask on the job has neutralized the poison. Still this wonderful fellow eludes identification.

At The Columbia

It takes a versatile artist to play a woman of the streets and a society leader in the same reel of films but Petrova is equal to the task in the picture "The Scarlet Woman" which she is gracing with her art again today and tonight at "the house of so many comforts." "The Scarlet Woman" deals with a woman who is scarlet from a big motif and not because she is bad at heart. It deals with a side of womanhood that has been little touched in pictures and Petrova and a good cast put the story over in the Metro offering with plenty to spare. The picture is in six reels. A sparkling one reel Pathé shows some of the finest current events that have fallen to the lot of the world news gleaners. A comedy, "Borrowing Trouble," with the inimitable Drows in the two principal parts, is a scream.

At the Arizona

A large audience was delighted last evening with "The Eternal Grind" a Mary Pickford picture which will be shown for the last time tonight at the Arizona.

Mary Pickford has scored her greatest triumph on the screen in such productions of the Famous Players Film Co. as "Madame Butterfly" and "Poor Little Peppina," in both of which she has assumed the role of a victim of circumstances. In "The Eternal Grind" however, Miss Pickford plays a totally different role, certain to become one of her most popular impersonations—the capable, undaunted, powerful personality which rises unflinchingly to meet every crisis in a life of hardship. She is a factory girl, one of whose sisters is a moral weakling and the other a chronic invalid.

In addition to this five-part Pickford feature tonight, the Arizona program includes an exceptionally interesting Burton Holmes Travelogue. Its subject is "The Murderous Moros of Mindanao."

At the Coliseum

New bill tonight at the Coliseum, and it will be a complete bill too. The Coliseum was disappointed the first half of the week because only part of their expected vaudevillians made their arrival as scheduled, but the Bert Levey people have made a real there will be a three-reel Thanhouser "Fear" with Peggy Burke, a dandy little actress and some peach at that. A comedy will complete the bill.

At the Columbia

promise this time that the whole schedule will arrive promptly and on time. So there will be four new people at the Coliseum this evening and they are guaranteed to be something good in the entertainment line. Besides the vaudeville numbers there will be about four reels of Keystone comedy.

Still Taking Pictures

Everywhere, at churches, swimming pool, residences, business thoroughfares the cameraman picked his victims, young, old, fat and slender, running away laughing, doing one thing or another, just out shopping, gossiping in the back of the house, at the bucksters wagon and any old way, hundreds of our citizens had their picture "took" unaware of the cameraman's presence.

Yesterday the summer school at the Pro Cathedral with its big showing of nifty looking kiddies were posed, to add to the local first aid class at Central school as taken, while also some of the evening amusement came in for a share of the pictures.

As the local series wouldn't be complete without a scene of the audience attending the Columbia theater, the cameraman will take pictures of them at tonight's show and reproduce them on the movie screen before the finish of the performance.
